BULL MOOSE BENNETT AND REID

MICHAEL
(Excerpts from character sketches of Alberta famous politicians.)
By H. P. Gadsby

The following interesting excerpts from the pen of H. P. Gadsby, respecting the most famous politicians representing Alberta constituencies in the House of Commons, Ottawa, should prove interesting reading to their many admirers, as well as their enemies as it will place the former and may amuse the latter.

"RED MICHAEL"
Ever since he burst on the public gaze the Tories have dreaded him as the wages of sin but to ordinary human beings he has been a great blessing. He has, so to speak, pioneered free trade, he has blazed a path of free speech for it in Canada.

It seems a pity that Michael, did not father this man, Red Michael, with his high heart, his eager brain, and his great trumpet voice always raised against wrong and injustice. But the fact remains that he comes from the nature of a compensating He is of our common Anglo-Saxon stock—a choice fruit of the British preference. Like his kindred, wherever he is, he is a good and a true man. He is a man of a yard wide he wears well. There isn't a thread of shoddy in his make-up. He is true as all through and no respecter of persons when they stand in the way of right doing. He has shown what a good Canadian a good Englishman can make when he is allowed to follow his own bent. He is a good and a true man. He is a man of a yard wide he wears well. Town Topics

Mr. Osborn, the new proprietor of the Criterion Hotel, is having that hostelry thoroughly renovated and remodelled.

Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Allen of Edmonton were guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. T. B. Stevenson on Friday of last week.

The weather during the past few days has been decidedly cold, the government thermometer on Wednesday night registering 17 below.

The friends of Mrs. W. Gotthard, regret to learn that she is not enjoying good health, but they hope for her speedy and permanent recovery.

Reynold & Greiner are apparently experiencing little difficulty in disposing of the Ford cars they received last week. Sales have been made to H. E. Cutler, W. H. Ouel and J. P. Richards.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Farnham regret to learn that their youngest daughter, who was seriously ill with pneumonia recently is not convalescing as rapidly as they would like.

D. Cummings, who has been speaking the winter with friends and relatives in Bonnie Scotland, returned home last week. Although he had a most delightful outing, he is pleased to return to this part of Sunny Alberta.

W. S. Douglas of H.M.C.S., who runs east of Edmonton on the Canadian Northern, was in the city last week, on business and incidentally shaking hands with his many friends. Mr. Douglas' many friends here are always delighted to see him.

Owing to the increased attendance at the Business College, Principal Price has engaged Miss C. Timlick, as his Assistant. Miss Timlick holds the highest qualifications as a teacher and judging from the way the pupils are progressing, Principal Price, and his Assistant, are surely going to boost Wetaskiwin in education.

Sgt. Michel met with a painful accident on Saturday last as he was riding his horse a few miles west of the city. The animal stumbled and fell on the sergeant's limb, with the result it was badly sprained. Fortunately no bones were fractured, and the sergeant's host of friends hope to see him about again in a few days.

Pat Burns of Calgary the great cattle and meat man, has been advising the people of his city to go out, get a few acres of land and grow something on it. The latter suggestion is the important one of the lot. A lot of people and in more places than the west, have gone out and got bits of land, but omitted to grow anything on them. As one result, where they might have had some income on their investment they now have a loss.—Montreal Gazette.

The angel of death, visited the home of W. O. L. Save, of the Malmo district, on the 17th inst., and removed his beloved wife, Lova, after a lingering illness of nine months. She was one of the earliest settlers in this Lewisville district, and the host of friends of the family of the deceased, regret to learn of her demise. The remains were laid to rest at the cemetery at Malmo, and the cortege was one of the largest ever seen in the district.

We desire to draw the special attention of our readers and especially of the younger men among them to the advertisement appearing in another column with regard to the proposed raising of two Troops of Light Horse in our district. There is no time to be lost by those whose patriotic spirit prompts them to support a movement which cannot fail to be of great advantage to the town and district and a source of pleasure and profit to those who participate in it.—Hardisty Mail.

Dr. Pasley was called to Acme last week to do a few major operations in veterinary surgery for E. A. Davidson, proprietor of the Acme Percheron farm, A. C. Rider and others. While there he was informed that hog cholera existed a short distance south-east of Acme. There were also outbreaks of this disease at Edmonton the past winter. It might be well to call the attention of those engaged in the swine industry, that nearly every outbreak of hog cholera in Canada has been directly traceable to the feeding of uncooked slop or garbage containing scraps of American pork, or beware of what and how you feed. Province.

Two cattle ponies, the property of Edward J. Kelley, were stolen from Peace street of Saturday, and owing to time of writing no one has been placed under arrest for the offence, although the police claim to know the guilty parties. When the Kelley boys had ridden the ponies into the city, had concluded their business, they discovered that the horses were not where they had been tethered, and at first thought that a joke had been played upon them, but came to the conclusion after a thorough search of the city, that the ponies had been stolen. A substantial reward is being offered for their recovery. The descriptions of the horses are: one black gelding, weight 800 lbs.; one roan gelding, weight 900 lbs., both horses were shod with branded "B" shoes. Each had a handsome stock saddle attached to which was a lariet.

MILLINERY OPENING AT THE STAR STORE

The large number of Shoppers who visited the store of Montgomery & West last Saturday stopped to admire the Dry Goods window in which were shown the latest designs in millinery suits and gowns. As this was opening day all were anxious to see the latest styles of millinery on the second floor. Many of the models shown were procured from the larger wholesale dealers in Canada and the United States. A large number of the hats are very small and close fitting but chic and becoming. The large hats have for the present disappeared. The trimming for the most part is placed in front of the hat. The "Tango" shade is still popular as well as the new blues. The Flowers were never so beautiful in coloring and variety as this season. All kinds of monies, feathers and Pom Poms were shown as well as fancy ribbons. A picturesque touch given to the models was the throat latch so popular this season.

Considering the large number of sales made on the opening day, the firm looks forward to the most successful millinery season in its history.

LITERARY SOCIETY

The Wetaskiwin High School Literary and Debating Society held their ninth regular meeting in the kindergarten room, on Friday, March 26th, under the auspices of the teachers of the Alexandra School. The president called the meeting to order and the minutes were read and approved. During the business part of the proceedings, the president asked for the report of the committee, selected to make arrangements for the use of a theatre Mr. Crosby speaking in behalf of the Committee stated that they could not only report progress, as no definite answer had yet been received in connection with the Angus Theatre. Mr. Crosby stated, also, that they could not secure the Bijou Theatre for March 27th on account of the musical show. It was moved by Mr. Asselstine and seconded by Merrill Lyle, that the last meeting be postponed to Tuesday evening, March 31st, and that it should then, be held in the Bijou Theatre. The motion was carried. After the business was concluded, Miss Milton Allshah took the chair and the program was opened by an instrumental duet, by Miss Ramsay and Miss Allshah. Then followed a very interesting and amusing address on "The Immigration of 50 years ago" by Mrs. Terry. Mr. Crosby then gave a reading, which proved to be amusing. A very fine duet was rendered by Miss Ramsay and Miss Smith. Mr. Asselstine then gave an instructive speech on "The Life of the man". The meeting was closed by singing "God Save the King".

ALBERTA MINING SHOWS SUBSTANTIAL INCREASE FOR YEAR

Although Alberta has experienced exceptionally mild weather during the fall and winter just past, 354,997 tons of coal were mined more than the previous year, or a total of 4,306,346 tons. This is one of the interesting facts brought out in the annual report of the mines branch of the provincial department of public works, and serves to indicate that coal was exported or used for industrial purposes to a greater extent than last year or both. The amount of coal exported, according to the report, was about one million tons, and it is expected that this export trade will increase greatly, with the opening of new mines in Alberta and larger markets outside the province, especially in Saskatchewan.

The old coal mines act which was found to be unwieldy and generally unsatisfactory was supplanted on March 26th 1913, by another piece of legislation known as the new act, which is working very satisfactorily. The increase in 1913 over 1912 was 24.35 per cent.

Poling are the particulars of coal mined during 1913:
Number of coal mines in operation in Alberta in 1913: 289.
Number of tons of coal mined: 4,306,346.
Number of tons of coke produced: 65,167.
Number of tons of briquettes produced: 130,861.
Persons employed inside mines during December: 2,253.
Persons employed outside mines during December: 2,253.

TALE OF LOVE AND LOCKSMITH

He Meets a Suspicious Character, Who Gives Him $5 and a New Suit For an Old One, but the Wise Hobo Makes Another Exchange.

By M. QUAD.
(Copyright, 1914, by Associated Literary Press.)

I HAD just come back to the tracks after getting a little to eat at a farmhouse and was passing a heavy truck fringing the road when a man rose up and beckoned me and called:

"Hey, hobo, I want to speak to you a minute."

"I am always ready to be spoken to and always looking to enlarge my extensive circle of acquaintances. I made my way into the thick to come upon a pretty tough looking man who had one arm in a bandage and several fresh cuts on his face. I didn't take him for a minister of the gospel who had been out to a morning picture show the night before and lost his way and fallen into a culvert."

"Hobo, have you a heart?" asked the man as I stood siding him and looking at him for a moment.

"I have, but I've worked over under the right arm," I said.

"Good! I'm glad you are a joker, because you'll see the point of what I suggest."

"He suggested that we change our suits."

"I'm about to tell you. You have been in love, I take it?"

"A hundred times."

"Good again! You've felt that you must marry the object of your love or die?"

"You bet!"

"I thought you looked like that kind of a man. It is plain that there is a bond between us, and I'm going to trust you. Have a smoke, hobo?"

A Drummer's Romance.

He brought out a couple of cigars, and when we had got to puffing he says:

"I am a drummer for a large grocery house. The town three miles below is on my route. One day three months ago I was there when a farmer and his daughter drove in. One look at the girl and I lost my heart."

"Your eldest, eh?"

"Hobo, did you ever see an angel walking around on earth?"

"Not in the state of Illinois. The Chicago grafters would have her in a cage within ten minutes and charge $1 admission to behold her."

"It was late at first sight on my part and love at first sight on hers. We knew that we were for each other."

"But did her old dad know to the contrary?"

"He did, hobo; he did. When he saw that cupid had shot his arrow at me, he told me that if he ever caught me within a mile of his house he would break my neck. That was a year ago."

"And you have never been there?"

asked.

Fond Hearts Parted.

"Not until last night," he answered, with a sigh. "We wrote to each other. We were to elope. Yes, everything was planned without the old villain getting the slightest hint. Last night I drove out to the farm after dark and hid in a fence corner till the clock struck midnight."

"And then you gave a low whistle?"

"Correct."

"And she carefully raised the sash of her window?"

"She did."

"And you up with a fifteen foot ladder you had paid a carpenter $3 to make for the occasion?"

"That's it, hobo."

"And that ladder was painted blue, as a token that your love for her never grew cold?"

"It was."

"Well?" I asked.

"Before she could descend the ladder she was met by a man who shot me in my arm, and you can see that a few struck my face. There his building got after me, and there was nothing left but flight. I am here to hiding, and he is looking for me to shoot me down in cold blood."

"And you want my help and shall have it. I may be in just the same fix as soon as I meet an angel. I'll get some water from the ditch to wash away the blood."

First Aid to the Injured.

I brought some in my hat and soon had him looking more comfortable. The shot had not penetrated very deep."

in face or arm, and I got most of them out with a knife blade. It was while I was fussing with him that I discovered he had a gun and a knife and a large knife in his pocket. Of course I hadn't taken any stock in his story, and now I got the tip that he had been shot while doing a job in the town."

Did I look wise? Did I seem skeptical? Was there anything critical in my bearing?

You go to! A hobo is a tenderfoot for a year or two and then gets next. That chap intended to make his getaway all right, and it was not for me to interfere. When he had been overhauled and braced up he suggested that we change clothes. Not the slightest objection on my part. Then he asked for my name and a brief biography and after handing me a five dollar bill told me to go on.

"Checkers," says he as pleasant as a big snowfall after a thunder shower, "you don't want my angel's father to overtake and shoot me down, do you?"

"Far from it," I says.

"Then you'll keep quiet about this?"

"Sure, Mike."

"They may arrest you, but they can't make a case."

"Oh, that's all right! Even if they make out a case I'm used to going to jail. Just like along and be happy, and don't let go of that angel girl she's young."

He smiled and took the truck, and I sat down to wait. For what? You don't think I was green enough to do a good business suit and be spotted before I had some half a mile, do you? A hobo face and hair and slouch hat don't go with a twenty dollar suit of clothes."

Professional Pride Stirred.

In about half an hour a tramp came along the tracks. He had no business there. It's a tramp for the highway and a hobo for the law. My goose was in the fellow's clasp, and as he came along I seized and dragged him into the thicket and never stopped cutting him for fifteen minutes. When I had reduced him to a humiliated state of mind I says:

"Stand up and strip off your duds!"

"What for?" he asks.

"Because I want 'em for myself."

"But what'll I do?"

"Take the other suit."

He turned over, and his legs sparkled with delight. He was going to get a fine suit for $2 worth of rags. He didn't lose no time making the exchange, and as he stood with the better suit on a puzzled look came to his face, and he asked:

"Hobo, why are you so good to me?"

"It's to punish myself. I find that I'm getting too proud and stuck up for a hobo, and so I am going to begin at the bottom again. You keep mum about it, however. If you don't."

"Be sure I will!"

He tramped on toward the town, and after taking a meandering way, I followed on. They had him under arrest for attempted burglary the night before, and the watchman of a store was waving over and over again that he knew some of those birdshot must have struck. He was right, but it was not for me to explain. I had got a good thing and passed it up to the next. I just leaned up against a lamp post, and says I to myself, says I:

"Checkers, the man who lets well enough alone is the man who piles up more woe."

What Wellington Was Afraid Of.

Sir William Allen covered a large canvas with a picture of the battle of Waterloo, which the Duke of Wellington bought. His grace asked the painter to call at the Horse Guards on a certain day to receive payment. Punctually Sir William came, and the duke began to count out notes for the agreed upon. Knowing how valuable was his time, Allen said that he would be quite content to take the duke's check.

His grace went on counting, and the artist, thinking he had not been heard, remarked:

"It would save your grace time and trouble if you would give me a check on your bankers."

Either angry at being interrupted in his counting or else jealously, with a touch of the truth that is sometimes spoken in jest, the duke answered:

"Do you think I would allow Countess de Bunker to know what a fool I have been?"—London Tit-Bits.

Bride Cost Him $3.

At a smoker at a Washington club Representative Henry of Texas told one of his stories about international marriages.

"Count Olcott," he said, "was perhaps the meanest foreigner who ever looked a Yankee in the face."

"Olcott married Little Goldie at the Paris registry office, and the next day his friend, the Marquis Teto de Venn, said to him heartily:

"I congratulate you on your magnificent haul. You have landed, I judge, $100,000 francs."

"Well, no, not quite $100,000," said Olcott. "The wedding was $100,000 francs."

THE REASON FEWER PEOPLE TAKE "SALTS"

We find the use of salts and other harsh physics is becoming less every year because more and more people are using Recall Ordinaries, which we and they firmly believe to be the best bowel remedy ever made. They taste so much like candy that even the children like them. At the same time they act so easily and naturally that there is no purging, griping or pain. They promptly remove the constipation and, by soothing and strengthening the bowels, make it less liable to occur again. We have the strongest faith in them. We know what they are made of and the pleasant, beneficial results that always follow their use.

You needn't take our word for it. If Recall Ordinaries don't help you—if they don't entirely relieve all your bowels troubles—come back and tell us and we'll give you your money. In wet pocket tin boxes; 10c, 25c, 50c.

You can buy Recall Ordinaries only at The Recall Store and in the town only of us.

CAMROSE

(From the Canadian)

The proposition of the members of the Camrose Curling Club to form a joint stock company to be known as the Camrose Curlers Limited, was advanced a further stage on Monday evening when provisional directors of the company were appointed and instructions given them to secure an option on a suitable site, have plans and specifications prepared for both a four and six sheet rink.

Local Improvement District No. 427, of which W. P. Went of Edberg is Secretary, will award to boys under sixteen years of age the following prize in each division for the largest number of gophers killed before June 1st, 1914. The tails of the gophers killed are to be counted by the councillor of each division:

1st Prize, $5.00; 2nd prize, $4.00;

two prizes of $3.00 each; two prizes of $2.00 each; 15 prizes of 50 cents each.

L. Wade and Carl Levang returned last week from a hunting and trapping expedition in the vicinity of Long Lake 140 miles north of Vegreville.

They had a very enjoyable outing and secured a female silver fox which Mr. Wade has introduced to the fox ranch at Camrose. The animal is a fine specimen and is valued by Mr. Wade at $2.000. The next month is the best time to trap foxes but the party could not remain away any longer. During the cold spell in January, the thermometer fell to 62 degrees below zero. Several trappers lost foxes that were frozen in the traps before they could get to them in the course of their circuit speaking of the country.

Mr. Wade said that although it was very heavily wooded, young homesteaders were going in to take land.

Not HEART and NERVES

Wore So Bad She Could Not Sleep.

To those who sleep in a kind of a way, and whose rest is broken by fearful dreams, nightmares, sinking and smothering sensations, who wake in the morning as tired as when they went to bed, we can recommend Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. By taking them you can have your old, peaceful, undisturbed, refreshing sleep back again.

Mrs. Clara E. Horne, Horneville, Ont., writes:—Just a few lines to let you know what Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills did for me. My heart and nerves were so bad I could not sleep, and the least noise or excitement would make me feel that I was going to die, and I would tremble until I could hardly stand. I took doctor's medicine, but it did not do me much good. At last I tried Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and I can certainly say they did me a great amount of good. I can recommend them to anyone who is suffering as I was.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c. per box, 3 boxes for $1.25 at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn & Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Judicial Sale

OF FARM PROPERTY

Pursuant to the Judgment and Final Order for Sale, there will be offered for sale with the approbation of the Master in Chambers, by George L. Owen, Auctioneer, at his auction rooms in the City of Wetskiwin, at 2 P.M. on Saturday the 28th day of March A.D. 1914:

The South-West Quarter of Section Fourteen (14), Township Forty-Six (46), Range Twenty-five (25), West of the Fourth Meridian in the Province of Alberta, containing 160 acres more or less.

The Plaintiff is informed of the following particulars:—About 125 acres consist of upland, the balance being low-lying, while of 80 acres which are open to be re-cultivated. About 75 acres are under brush and timber (poplar and willow). A dug well on the lands yields a fair supply of water. The whole area of the Quarter is fenced, with wire on three sides, with poles on fourth side and the pasture land is cross fenced.

The said lands are situated about 15 miles from City of Wetskiwin, 6 miles from Millet where there is a Railway Station, Post Office, market and Creamery, 6 miles from a Church, while there is a school on an adjoining Quarter Section.

The buildings on the said lands consist of two log houses, respective dimensions 18 x 27 feet and 15 x 30 feet, and two log stables, respective dimensions 18 x 27 feet and 15 x 30 feet, and two log stables, respective dimensions 24 x 15 feet and 36 x 24 feet.

The property will be offered for sale in one lot, subject to a reserve bid, and subject to the usual conditions contained in the grant from the Crown, or in the estate certificate of Title. The purchaser is to pay 10 per cent of his bid to the vendor or its Solicitor at the time of the sale. The balance of the purchase money to be paid into Court to the following: Within sixty (60) days without interest; and upon payment of the said balance the purchaser shall be entitled to a transfer or vesting order and to be let into possession.

In all other respects the terms and conditions of sale will be the same as the usual conditions of the Court of Alberta, as approved by the Master.

Further particulars can be had from Messrs McDonald & Tighe, Imperial Bank Building, Edmonton, Solicitors for the Vendor.

Dated at Edmonton, the 28th day of February A.D. 1914.

Clerk of the Supreme Court.

Watch Your Liver.

If It Is Lazy, Slow or Torpid
Stir It Up by the Use of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills.

A lazy, slow or torpid liver is a terrible affliction, as it holds back the bile, which is required to move the bowels, and lets it into the blood instead, thus causing Constipation, Catarrh of the Stomach, Sick Headache, Langour, Pain under the Right Shoulder, etc.

Mrs. Wesley Estabrooks, Midgic Station, N.B., writes:—"For several years I have been troubled with pains in the liver. I have had medicine from several doctors, but was only relieved for a time by them. I then tried Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and I have had no trouble with my liver since. I can honestly recommend them to every person who has liver trouble."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a box, or 5 vials for $1.00, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

"Comets, Meteors and Polar Lights"

Popular Lecture Delivered By Prof. Killam To the Educational Club on Monday Evening. Excellent Musical Program Rendered. Club Holds Banquet Next Monday Evening.

In the opinion of many, who attended the meeting of the Educational Club on Monday evening, the highest point of the season's sessions has been reached. The attendance was the largest of the season, and the program was most interesting and educational. Rev. W. L. Bradley occupied the chair and briefly introduced Prof. Killam of the University of Alberta who delivered his popular lecture "Comets, Meteors and Polar Lights," in fine form. The musical part of the program was of the highest order, consisting of a solo by Mrs. Dr. Walker and an instrumental trio by Mrs. McFarlane, Mrs. Pocock and Miss Knight.

Dr. Killam said Astronomy was the oldest of all sciences. It had originated in the astrology of the ancient world, which had been full of superstition, but which with the advance of knowledge, had gradually become more scientific and rational. Astronomy, he said, offered many and various problems for solution and he proposed to deal with that branch of it which was concerned with comets, meteors and polar lights.

Comets had once been thought to be the harbingers of trouble. The lecturer referred to medieval astrology in Germany in the seventeenth century containing advice to trust in God against their influence. There had been some remarkable coincidences which had tended to give color to these superstitions. A comet, not known to be Halley's had appeared in the same year as the destruction of Jerusalem by Titus, and also in the same year, 1135, as the death of Agrippa, at Rome.

The three components of a comet were the nucleus or head, showing a comparatively brilliant light, the coma or surrounding cloud, and the tail, which had been called the hair. It was thought of as being made of even millions of miles long. The diameter of the head of Halley's Comet was equal to twice the distance from the sun to the earth. Some comets have been bright enough to be seen in full daylight, notably in 1847.

There were two classes of comets. The first was the periodic comet, whose orbit was an ellipse or closed curve and the other class comprised those whose orbit was a parabola stretching out into infinite space and these never returned. Comets said the speaker, tended to destroy themselves, as their substance was always being lost in the tremendous extremity of the tail. It was remarked that as the swing around the sun, their tails, instead of streaming behind them, pointed always away from the sun. This was probably due to the repellant action of light waves. It was doubtful whether comets showed their own light, like the sun, or with a reflected light, like the moon and planets. Some astronomers claim that they have observed the comet's rays, like those of the moon. Absurdly exaggerated accounts existed of the brightness of comets, Seneca speaking of one as bright as the sun, and Helicetus of one as bright as the sun. Comets had been photographed by photography.

The name of Halley was associated with the discovery of the periodicity of comets. He had not discovered the comet which bore his name, but merely prophesied its return. It was while a student at Cambridge that he had studied Newton's theory of gravitation and decided that the comet would reappear in seventy-five years. It came within a month of the time arrived at by revised calculation. Halley's name was associated also with the compass and a measurement of the size of the earth. He paid for the publishing of Newton's "Principia."

Mosser had discovered seventeen comets, and another investigator twenty-four in as many years, (1803-1827). Prizes had been offered for the discovery of comets, $200 being paid for each one. The King of Sweden the Academy of Sciences and Warner and Donahoe in America, had offered prizes.

The lecturer really described the routine of discovering and naming a comet. Mr. Brooks had discovered one in 1891 and thus deserved what he called a place. 3 a.m. found it 7 a.m. 1-2-3 graphed it to Harvard. Next morning the world knew it.

In 1811 Napoleon's notice was attracted on his way to Moscow. In the year a celebrated vintage was produced and sold as late as 1850 under the name of Comet Wine.

The last appearance of Halley's comet had been in 1910. Its period was about seventy-five or seventy-six years. It had been traced back to 1531 and appeared in 1865 in the Bannock Taper.

Coming to meteors or shooting stars Dr. Killam said as many as ten per hour had been counted. They were generally most numerous in November. They were jumps of mineral travelling from twenty to sixty miles per second. When they struck the atmosphere they became heated by the compression of the air ahead of them and generally disappeared before reaching the earth. Aerolites, or fallen meteors, had been found, weighing several tons. Their chemical composition was identical with that of the earth. They nearly all came from the same point in the heavens and had enabled scientists to measure the approximate depth of the atmosphere.

Polar light was particularly interesting subject especially in this country. Nobody knew what it was, although there were several theories. It was in six general classes, viz:

1. One or rainbow form.
2. Vertical bands.
3. Centrifugal rays.
4. Curtains or drapery.
5. Coronas.
6. General illumination.

The light got more intense as one went further north, to a certain point after that less bright. Expeditions had been sent to the poles of greatest play. These phenomena were probably magnetic or electrical. It had been suggested that they were due to currents passing through the atmosphere from pole to pole of the earth. It had also been contended that the aurora had some connection with sun spots, a contention which experience seemed to justify as they had a tendency to go together, being most noticeable at about eleven year intervals.

After a brief discussion a hearty vote of thanks was tendered to Dr. Killam for his fascinating lecture.

Congratulations were extended to Mr. Crosby for the energy and ability with which he had rendered the interest and effected the increasing success of the Educational Club.

Miss Knight presided at the piano while the audience joined in singing the National Anthem which closed the regular meeting of this winter's series.

The Educational Club will wind up this winter's work with a banquet at the Grand Hotel on Monday evening March 30th. To which a cordial invitation is extended to all who wish to attend. The price of the tickets is $1.00. Among the guests to the banquet may be mentioned: The Mayor, President of the University of Alberta, John Ross, chief inspector of Schools, Dr. Riddell, President of Alberta College, A. B. Ottewill, M.A., of the University Extension Department. This is a notable event and no doubt all the leading citizens and their lady friends will desire to attend. Tickets may be had from the following gentlemen: A. C. Crosby, Dr. T. B. Stevenson, Dr. P. A. Northey, Rev. W. L. Brashby, Rev. C. E. A. Pocock, and J. P. Fowler. The banquet will begin at 8 o'clock sharp.

CONSERVATIVES HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

The Wetskiwin Liberal-Conservative Association held a re-organizational meeting on Thursday afternoon last, when officers were elected for the ensuing year, and other business was transacted. The following were elected: Messrs Geo. B. Campbell, W. J. Loggie, J. P. Fowler, and others. The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows:

Pres., P. B. Watson
Vice Pres., F. E. Kelley
Sec.-Treas., D. J. McKitterick, re-elected.

Executive Messrs Amos Doupe, J. P. Ellis, J. B. Staples, J. J. Foster, H. M. Angus, Geo. L. Owen, J. H. King and G. L. Chard.

It was expected that a big rally would be held in the evening, to be addressed by Mr. P. A. Morrison of Vegreville, but as that gentleman was indisposed, the meeting was postponed indefinitely.

Mrs. A. H. Barnard announces that she will receive on the second Monday in April, and thereafter on the first Monday of each month.
